KinkFest 2011 Welcomes the Men's Community

PORTLAND, Oregon -- January 7, 2011 --

KinkFest 2011 is making a focused effort to welcome all facets of our diverse leather, BDSM, and fetish community. The men's community is an important part of this diversity.

KinkFest 2011 features several gay male presenters including Master Skip and slave Rick, Master Trooper Frank and slave paul. In addition to these presenters, all of our workshops have been selected provide edgy, relevant, and useful information for the entire community, regardless of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or power-exchange dynamic.

Get things moving and shaking at our Rainbow Dance Party on Friday night! Enjoy full-time access to the well-equipped, 18,000+ square foot KinkFest dungeon during conference hours... then stick around for Kinkfest's infamous Friday and Saturday night play parties! The dungeon will feature fantastic displays, incredible rigging set-ups for those bondage and suspension enthusiasts, one of the biggest collection of dungeon furniture on the West coast, awesome lighting and sound system, live performances and a live DJ at both play parties, gear storage area and more!

Need more reasons to register? Here you go:
